Web Resources
• Cancer and Careers. Access at: www.cancerandcareers.org
  Although this site focuses on working women with cancer, much of the information is relevant to all cancer survivors who have questions about maintaining a job during and after cancer treatment. The site offers separate sections for survivors, employers and co-workers with detailed information about employment law and communication about the illness. Other topics include health insurance, appearance, stress management and disability.

• Lance Armstrong Foundation. LiveStrong. Access at: www.laf.org
